Pomegranate has been a symbol of health, fertility and eternal life for thousands of years. Recent clinical studies have demonstrated pomegranate seed oil's therapeutic and preventative properties. Specifically it is valued for its broad spectrum beneficial uses for the body including the support and maintenance of breast, uterine, prostate and heart health as well as the health and appearance of skin. This wonder ingredient provides powerful natural anti-oxidant and anti-inflammatory benefits.

Organic Pomegranate Seed Oil Capsules

Capturing the miracle of the pomegranate, Organic Pomegranate Seed Oil Capsules are a powerful antioxidant and rare plant-based source of Omega5 conjugated fatty acid (CLA). The oil is cold-pressed from the seeds of organic pomegranates using a proprietary process of extraction that delivers 100% pomegranate seed oil with a very high concentration of punicic acid. The vegan gencaps are made from ultra-pure seaweed, which has been shown to have a synergistic effect with pomegranate seed oil. Each soft gel capsule contains the equivalent pomegranate seed oil of approximately one half pomegranate fruit, plus a small amount of organic olive oil and vitamin E for stability and natural preservation.

Why Pomega5?

- The Highest Quality Oil: Pomega5 oil comes from the seeds of pomegranates grown organically in the Mediterranean. The ideal blend of climate, soil and traditional farming methods yields pomegranates that are renowned for their very high concentration of punicic acid. In fact, it contains the highest quality pomegranate seed oil available.
- Packed and Shipped Under Strictest Quality Conditions: Pomegranate seed oil is a fragile oil, which can oxidize if not handled carefully. After pressing, Pomega5 Organic Pomegranate Seed Oil is sealed in airtight containers and shipped by air directly from Spain. The oil canisters are not opened until they are ready for encapsulation, guaranteeing the freshest possible product reaches consumers.
- Natural & Pure Ingredients: Like all Pomega5 products, the Organic Pomegranate Seed Oil Capsules are 100% pure, organic and preservative-free. The seaweed is harvested under Fair Labour Practices and is mercury and pesticide free.
