

POMEGA5: The First Line of Organic Pomegranate Seed Oil
Nutritional Supplements & Therapeutic Skin Care
Products At-A-Glance

Merging ancient medicine with modern science, Pomega5™, a new organic wellness and skincare company based in Northern California, has recently launched the industry's first line of organic pomegranate seed oil nutritional supplements and therapeutic skin care. Capturing the miracle of the pomegranate, this holistic product line uses the highest quality 100% pure, cold-pressed pomegranate seed oil – the most potent part of the fruit itself – to create unique skin care products that luxuriously soothe, moisturize and heal dry, irritated skin along with nutritional supplements that support and maintain a host of bodily functions including breast, prostate, uterine heart and skin health and help balance the body's pH level while imparting anti-oxidant benefits.

Nutritional Supplements

Pomega5™ Pure Organic Pomegranate Seed Oil Capsules

Pomegranate seed oil is a natural phytoestrogen, powerful antioxidant and rare plant-based source of Omega5 conjugated fatty acid (a type of CLA). The Pomegranate Oil is cold-pressed from the seeds of organic pomegranate, using a patented process of extraction that delivers 100% pomegranate seed oil with a very high concentration of punicic acid. Each soft gel capsule contains the equivalent pomegranate seed oil of one whole pomegranate fruit.

30 Softgel Capsules. Retail price: $58

Pomega5™ Organic Pomegranate Seed Oil Complex

Therapeutic Skin Care

Pomega5™ Pure Organic Pomegranate Seed Oil

Pomegranate has been used for centuries as a healing plant. This organic, cold-pressed Pomegranate seed oil can be used to heal dry, cracked, or irritated skin, and to restore its suppleness and equilibrium. Feet, elbows and hands love it.

Retail Price $48 for 10ml dropper.

Pomega5™ Healing Cream

Pomega5™ captures the miracle of the pomegranate in a skin treatment cream made with 100% pure cold-pressed pomegranate seed oil. The oil is combined with other pure plant and seed oils, essential oils and plant extracts, including carrot seed oil, calendula oil, arnica oil and valencia essential oil, known for their restoring and healing properties to soothe and revitalize skin. In addition to its skin calming benefits, it provides cosmetic anti-aging benefits. And because of the concentration of ingredients, a small amount goes a long way. Use day and night, on the face and body. 100% pure and natural, with no synthetics, fillers or perfumes, and naturally preservative free. Dermatologist-tested and safe for the entire family.

Retail Price $68 for 50 ml jar.

Pomega5™ Healing Cleansing Bar – The “Unsoap”

Pomega5™ Healing Cleansing Bar is a soap-free cleanser made with olive oil, organic pomegranate seed oil, herbs and essential oils known for their restoring and healing properties. It gently exfoliates, cleanses and calms the skin, leaving it soft, smooth and balanced. Suitable for all skin types and can be used on the face and body. Pomega5™ Healing Cleansing Bar contains no perfumes, is vegan, naturally preservative free, and may be used on the face or body.
